

Maynooth University
National University of Ireland Maynooth

IQUA Spring Meeting Saturday 25th April 2015

Venue: Computer Science Lecture Hall 1, Callan Building, North Campus, Maynooth University.

Getting to Maynooth University – See map at the back of this program for the location of the venue and you are invited to follow the following link for travel information:

<https://www.maynoothuniversity.ie/location/maps>

If you choose to travel by car, there is ample free parking available beside the venue.

Timetable

9:30-10:00: Registration, Callan Building entrance Hall

10:00-10:05: Welcome and house-keeping

10:05-10:25: Jasper Knight

Subglacial processes and environments: a view from Clew Bay

10:25-10:45: Sabrina Renken

Ice Sheet - Ocean Interaction in the North Atlantic, West Porcupine Bank, Offshore Ireland: A Palaeoceanographic Perspective

10:45-11:05: Carlos Chique

A Palaeolimnological Investigation in a Polluted Freshwater Lake – Lough Muckno, Co. Monaghan

11:05-11:40: Coffee break and poster session

11:40-12:00: Karen Taylor

A high resolution palaeoenvironmental assessment of the Neolithic at the Carrowkeel-Keshcorran complex, County Sligo, Ireland

12:00-12:20: Alwynne McGeever

Investigating the population dynamics of Pinus and Ulmus in Europe during the Holocene

12:20-12:40: Martha Coleman

A reconstruction of North Mayo's Late Quaternary Glacial Landscape using AMS 14C Dating and Palaeoenvironmental Evidence

12:40-14:00: Lunch Break

14:00-14:20: Seamus McGinley

A Palaeolimnological Investigation of Lough Lugh at the Mythical Center of Ireland

14:20-14:40: Kathleen Crossen

Genetic diversity of ancient Scots pine populations in Ireland and Scotland

14:40-15:00: Coffee break and poster session

15:00 IQUA AGM

Evening drinks...

INQUA 2019

DUBLIN
IRELAND

Maynooth University Campus Map

